*And David shepherded them with integrity of heart;
with skillful hands he led them. - Psalm 78:72*

Leading Your Church Through the Great DeChurching

Over the last 25 years over 40 million people have left the church. This is the largest and swiftest religious shift in the history of our country. What does this shift mean for ministry in coming years?

Guided by Integrity: A Journey in Faith

We all face situations where doing the 'right' thing could potentially cost us friends and/or influence. How does God want us as Christians to navigate the fine line between integrity and acceptance in our modern world?

Skillful Hands, Pure Hearts: Leadership God's Way

Martin Luther King Jr. once said, 'The ultimate measure of a man is not where he stands in moments of comfort and convenience, but where he stands at times of challenge and controversy.' How do we, as leaders in our congregations and communities, cultivate skills and hearts that will bear fruit in God's kingdom?

Caring for each other with Love and Skill

Our nation, neighborhoods, cities, churches and even families are facing divisive pressures like never before. In church alone, half the congregation feels passionately one way, the other half feels just as strongly the opposite. How do we navigate these choppy waters with both love and skill without capsizing the boat?
